Pvt. Pearce In Korea with 7th Infantry

Army Pvt. Herbert R. Pearce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irb Pearce, 1851 Lomita Blvd., recently arrived in Korea for duty with the 7th Infantry Division.

Private Pearce is assigned to Company I of the 31st Regiment. He entered the Army last September and received basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

He formerly attended Banning high school, Wilmington and was a body and fender repairman for the Van Lingen Body Shop in civilian life.

The 7th Infantry Division, which made the amphibious landing at Inchon in September, 1950, has carried the fight to the Communists in every sector of Korea from the Pusan perimeter to the Yalu River.

Broad Jump Contest Won By T. Coudy

Army Pvt. Ted D. Coudy, whose wife, Karole, lives at 1071 Lane St., Akron, Ohio, recently won the running broad jump and the 100 yard dash in the track and field meet held during the Organizational Day contests of the 11th Engineer Group in Schweitzingen, Germany.

Private Coudy is a supply specialist in headquarters of the 11th, a Seventh Army unit which directs the operations and training of engineer battalions in Germany.

Goudy, son of Mrs. Clara Langer, 3320 W. 185th St., Torrance, completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and arrived in Germany last March.

He graduated from Akron's South Side high school in 1952 and was a salesman for Sear, Roebuck before entering the Army in August of that year.

Former Local Minister Back From Europe

Chaplain (Capt.) R. Olsen, 2222 Vicksburg Ave., Oakland, Calif. is returning home from Germany for a 30-day leave and a new Army assignment.

Serving as assistant chaplain in the Nurnberg District since June, 1950, Olsen will be assigned to the 6th Infantry Division at Fort Ord, Calif. For duty in Germany, he was awarded the Army of Occupation Medal.

A former student at Concordia College, Oakland, and a 1939 graduate of Church Divinity School of Pacific, Berkeley, Chaplain Olsen served as minister at the Church of Redeemer, Salmon, Idaho; Church of the Saviour, Hanford, Calif.; and St. Andrews Church, Torrance, Calif., before entering active duty in 1949.

His wife, Lucille, lives in Germany with him.

EC Provides New Building For Course

Housed in a new modern building and boasting the latest in modern refrigeration equipment, El Camino College has expanded its program in an effort to meet increasing demands of industry, according to Dr. Wm. Harless, Director of Instruction at the college. Students will gain experience in working with the newest designs in dehydration equipment as part of a program of giving complete instruction in hermetically sealed units being used in both domestic and commercial installations.

According to the college official an effective placement list is maintained and industry is waiting for trained men. Training is offered without tuition or fees and all tools and equipment are furnished by the college.

Registration for students in day classes will take place September 14 and 15. Evening students may register from August 24, to September 3, from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. For information call MEHo 4-6631 or PLYmouth 6-1421.

From the Halstead, Kansas, Independent: Mrs. E. Peterson was hostess to the Book-review Group Monday evening. Mrs. V. Chesley reviewed the book, "Three Little Pigs Stayed Home." There were 19 present.
